WORLD NEWS.

Former Governor Lloyd Lounes of Maryland is dead.

The whiskey trust has reduced its product to a lower price than at any time in four years.

Miss Eva C. Booth is the new commander of the Salvation Army in the United States. She will be called General Booth.

Former Vice President Levi P. Morton has just given $500,000 to the fund for the completion of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York.

Bishop John Lancaster Spalding, Roman Catholic prelate of Peoria, Ill., was stricken with paralysis at his residence last Friday. His physicians are hopeful of his recovery.

The soldiers from the Russian garrison at Port Arthur are this week being transported as prisoners of war to Japan. They are receiving the kindest treatment from the Japanese.

Senator Cockrell of Missouri, who will retire from the senate on March 14th, will be appointed to the Interstate commerce commission by the president to fill the place to be made vacant by the retirement of James D. Yeomans of Iowa.

Gen. Stoessel the Russian commander at Port Arthur who surrendered to Gen. Nogai, was much surprised on learning of the repeated defeat of Gen. Kuropatkin. He said he supposed Kuropatkin's army was within 20 miles of Port Arthur.

Alvah Adams, democrat, was inaugurated Governor of Colorado at Denver on Tuesday. At his side, while the oath was being administered, stood the retiring governor and late republican candidate for reelection, James H. Peabody, who has already begun a bitter contest for the office, claiming fraud in the voting.

It is reported from Tokyo from what is thought to be perfectly reliable sources that the Russian generals in Manchuria are closing conferences in General Kuropatkin, and that the Russian situation around Mukden is a serious one. It is feared that if Kuropatkin attacks the Japanese position along the Shukie river he will court disaster, and that his further retreat will mean the demoralization of his army.

The Japanese intend to establish a naval station at Port Arthur. The military administration at Port Arthur will retain only a small garrison as soon as the prisoners are withdrawn and order is restored. The fleet is busily engaged in clearing mines, but owing to their great number navigation will be unsafe for a long time. Only government craft will be allowed to enter the harbor. It is probable that Dally soon will be opened up to neutrals.

Gov. Joseph W. Folk was inaugurated at Jefferson City, Mo., on Tuesday. In his inaugural address he said: "The legislator who sells his vote traffics in the honor of a sovereign people, and prostitutes the trust reposed in him. There can be no offense which, if allowed to go on, is fraught with graver consequences. It is more fatal to civic life than any other crime, for it pollutes the stream of law at its source. It makes the passage of laws mere matters of bargain and sale, thwarts justice, enthrones iniquity and renders lawful government impossible. If all acts were for sale, we would have a government not of, for and by the people, but a government of, for and by the few with wealth enough to purchase official favor. It is the highest duty of every legislator, of every official and of every citizen to do all he can to eradicate this evil, which is the greatest enemy to free government and the greatest danger that confronts this nation to-day."
